

Guidelines for Authors 2024, for articles written in English

Bolivian Journal of Chemistry or REVISTA BOLIVIANA DE QUIMICA is an official publication of the Department of Chemistry of Universidad Mayor de San Andrés, in La Paz, Bolivia. It is currently indexed in Scielo, Scisearch, Google Scholar, Facebook, OAJI and Redalyc.

Scope. The BJC is a periodic magazine covering general chemistry and other related disciplines.

Vision and Mission of BJC. The BJC seeks to divulge new chemical discoveries or new facets of already known subjects, as well as other related researches. To be published, the submissions must have an appropriate degree of subject originality.

Publication. The Bolivian Journal of Chemistry is published both in print and in electronic formats (www.bolivianchemistryjournal.org y SciELO). BJC is an open access journal; it charges no fee to authors for publication and includes a peer-review system (single blind peer-review system). Bolivian Journal of Chemistry is published both in print and in electronic formats (www.bolivianchemistryjournal.org, Scisearch and SciELO). The type of publications is: original full papers, and reviews on determined general subjects.

Names of the Authors. The names of the authors must be written in Times New Roman, 12 in the following order: first and last names. The author's full name is followed by a superscript number correlated to the same number (superscript) preceding the name of the author's institution. Author names are separated by commas located immediately after the author's name and before the superscript reference number. More than one reference number can be attributed per author when it represents more than one institution, use commas without spaces between numbers to separate them. Add the conjunction "and" before the last author. The corresponding author is indicated with an asterisk (*).

Names of the Institutions.

They are placed in the order used for the names of the corresponding authors in Arial, 9. The following order must be respected: Department, or Institute, or Laboratory, University, postal address (physical or postal box), city, country, postal code, institutional email.

Referee committee. Every submitted paper will be peer-reviewed. The single blinded peer-review system was adopted. The editorial office receives submissions and envoy articles pre-approved by Chief Editor to peer-reviewers. The acceptance or refusal is upon the peer-reviewers' criteria.

Sections of a paper (The following order must be respected): Title, Author(s), Institution(s), Keywords, Abstract, Corresponding Author, Main Text: Introduction, Results and Discussion, Experimental, (these last two sections can be exchanged in the order), Conclusions, Acknowledgments, References. If the experimental part is very extensive, it can be sent separately under the heading of Supplemental Material.

Title. The title must be written in bold letters, in Times New Roman, font size 17. A short but descriptive title should be appropriate.

Keywords. It is required a limited number of significant key words. Use Verdana, font size 9.

Abstract. The abstract should describe very concisely the outstanding methods used and the results obtained during the research. It should not exceed 1/2 of an American letter size page. Use Times New Roman, font size 10. The abstract in English and Spanish is mandatory. Maximal Number of words: 150 each.

Resumen. El resumen debe describir de manera muy concisa los métodos destacados utilizados y los resultados obtenidos durante la investigación. No debe exceder la mitad de una página tamaño carta americana. Utilice fuente Times New Roman, tamaño 10. El resumen en inglés y español es obligatorio. Número máximo de palabras: 150 cada uno.

Corresponding Author. He is not necessarily the first author. He is responsible for interaction with the editorial office and with his co-authors. His email address is mandatory. Times New Roman (10).

Main Text. In all its sections (Introduction, Results and Discussion etc.) in Times New Roman 10, using single spacing; formatted in a column. The title of each section in bold capital letters in Arial 10, without italics, double spaced. Subtitles in lowercase, bold without italics Times New Roman 10. The article must be written in letter size. Note: The relative sequential order of the Results and Discussion, and Experimental sections is defined by the lead author.

Example:

INTRODUCTION (Arial 10, capital letters)

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION (Arial 10, capital letters)

EXPERIMENTAL (Arial 10, uppercase)

CONCLUSIONS Optional. (Arial 10, capital letters)

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS (Arial 10, capital letters)

REFERENCES (Arial 10, capital letters) The bibliographical references must be called in the text according to the numerical order. The use of automatic references provided by Word® is mandatory: 1st call: Main menu→References→Insert note at the end; 2nd or 3rd or more calls of the same reference: Main menu→References→Cross reference; apply superscript to the automatically generated cross reference number in the text. The references themselves (use Times New Roman, 10) should appear at the end of the article. Reference that does not fit into any of the following formats must be excluded (it is not a valid reference), or: apply formatting: "In the case of electronic address". Write the names of all the authors, it is prohibited to write the names of authors as: "A. A. Author et al."

Figures. In colors or black and white. Take into account that the printed edition is in colors. Only figures or spectra scanned in text mode will be accepted. Images scanned in photo mode will be accepted only in the case of real images. We recommend that the figures be inserted in the text, they must be identified with a figure number. Each figure carries a reference name as follows: "Figure name, not capitalized, not italicized, not bold; Times New Roman 10" not centered, left margin. The indication "Figure No. X", below the figure followed by the explanatory or allusive text.

Tables. Tables must be synchronized with the text and must be identified with a table number. Each table must have a name as follows: "Table name, no capital letters, no italics no bold; Times New Roman 10" not centered, left margin. The indication "Table No. X", above the table followed by the explanatory or allusive text.

Address for submissions. Articles should be submitted by email to revbolquim@outlook.com.
